Our Im-PECK-able Truckload Sale Is Here!

We hope you are enjoying the prolific number of wild birds visiting feeders these days. Let's give them more good reasons to keep them comin'! When our truck arrives (approximately 1 PM) on Thursday, November 18th, our sale will be in full swing. The sale ends when the truck is empty or at 2:30 PM on Saturday, November 20th, 2021--whichever comes first.

Yes, prices are higher than in the past, but we do believe these prices will be the lowest of the winter. As always (and especially now), we thank you for your continued support through thick and thin!
